● ● ● | CLASS INFORMATION

Friday, October 4, 2:00—3:30

Young Picasso at the Met

Pablo Ruiz Picasso was a prodigy in art, from childhood to advanced age of 91. See Picasso's changing world and learn his life story from his teenage years through his twenties by way of his pictures at the Metropolitan Museum of Art-including his Blue and Rose Periods

Friday, October 11, 2:00—3:30

A Younger Matisse at the Met, 1869-1906

We will trace the life story of Henri Emile Benoit Matisse (1869-1954)-until his mid-thirties, especially through art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Despite his conservative appearance and work habits, Matisse continually absorbed new ideas as he worked in Paris and the south of France.

Friday, October 18, 2:00—3:30

To Arms!... And Armor at the Metropolitan Museum of Art

Through works of art in the Arms and Armor galleries, learn how the European knight in shining armor evolved and declined, then revel in the exotic beauty of weaponry and battle garb of the Middle and Far East, including those of Japan's samurai warriors.

Friday, October 25, 2:00—3:30

West Africa on the East Coast

Explore the cultural tapestry of West Africa through centuries of art from within its 18 present-day countries, especially the Benin Kingdom of the Edo People. Included will be sculpture, metalwork, and ivories from local museums, such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Brooklyn Museum and the Princeton University Art Museum
